The Bal des enfants de l'OSM :

On Saturday, March 25, 2017, the Orchestre symphonique de Montréal is inviting families to be part of its fourth edition of the Bal des enfants, which will take place at Maison symphonique de Montréal. This magical event will help the OSM raise the funds it needs to support its mission of education and accessibility.

Children and their families begin the evening parading over the OSM's purple carpet. Snacks and entertainment is waiting for them in the decorated lobbies. Follows a concert-spectacle, conducted by Maestro Kent Nagano with comedians and dancers. Finally, desserts will be served at the exit and all children will leave with a souvenir-gift!
